DEBATE ON CANAL BILL

Missourian Wants It Passed to the Tune of Hail Columbia.

THE SHOWER OF BILLS CONTINUES.

Sulzer of New York Offers Resolution Authorizing Deposit of Treasury Surplus in Banks—Hearings on Cuban Reciprocity—Senate.

Washington, Jan. 8.—The second day of the debate in the house on the Nicaragua canal bill was opened by Mr. Shackelford (Mo.) a member of the committee which reported the bill. He spoke earnestly in advocacy of its passage.

"If you favor this bill," interposed Mr. Bartholdt (Mo.) "why is it that you and your Democratic colleagues from Missouri at the last session voted against a similar bill?"

"Because," replied Mr. Shackelford, "the bill at the last session was passed through this house to the tune of 'God Save the Queen.' I want it passed to the sweet strains of 'Hail Columbia' (applause)."

"But the Hay-Pauncefote treaty was not ratified at the last session," observed Mr. Bartholdt.

"True, it was not," replied Mr. Shackelford, "but our English secretary of state wanted it ratified and because we believed the wishes of her majesty's representative in the cabinet would prevail, we opposed the bill."

Mr. Lovering (Mass.) also a member of the committee that reported the bill, who followed Mr. Shackelford, said that in the past he favored the Nicaraguan route because the engineers had reported in its favor and because until recently he had believed that the trans-continental railroads were using the Panama route to obstruct action. But he had recently satisfied himself that the railroads were not behind the Panama canal. The recent offer of the French Panama canal company he believed was made in good faith, that the French stockholders were trying to realize something out of the wreck of their fortunes. He believed that the Eads-Teauntepec route was preferable to any which had been proposed, but he did not think the present a time for cavil. He did not like the Panama route, but if the new proposition of the Panama company offered advantages over the Nicaraguan route he thought the president should have alternate authority to accept it.

Others who participated in the debate during the day were Mr. Parker (N. J.) in opposition to confining the president to one route; Mr. Hill (Conn.) and Mr. Burton (Ohio), both favoring the Morris amendment to leave the selection of the route to the president. Mr. Burton formerly opposed the bill, but said he hoped this bill would pass.

Reciprocity With Cuba.

The house ways and means committee fixed Jan. 15 as the time for beginning hearings on Cuban reciprocity and it was the prevailing view in the committee that the hearings should not extend beyond Feb. 1. Chairman Payne stated that he had been in correspondence with the representative of the Cubans, who would be ready to proceed Jan. 15. Mr. Payne also stated that the committee was desirous of giving the fullest opportunity for the development of all facts, but did not wish this to extend into protracted statements of opinion on the course to be pursued. The committee also ordered a favorable report upon the recent resolution authorizing the commissioner of internal revenue to return bank checks, drafts, etc., having stamps thereon, and the bill for the redemption of such internal revenue stamps as have become valueless by the repeal of certain of the war taxes.

Representative Sulzer of New York introduced the following resolution: "Whereas, absorption of money by the United States treasury is detrimental to the best interests of the country, therefore be it resolved that the secretary of the treasury he and he is hereby directed to deposit all surplus funds belonging to the United States government with national banks having a capital stock of not less than $500,000; that such deposits be made without requiring United States government bonds as security; that on such deposits the United States treasury receive interest at the rate of two per cent per annum and that such deposits shall be first lien on the assets of the bank. No deposit in any one bank shall be greater than the combined capital and surplus of such bank."

Representative Hooker (Miss) has introduced a joint resolution, reciting that Commodore Schley was the senior officer in command at the battle of Santiago; that he was in absolute command at that battle and is entitled to the credit due to such commanding officer for the glorious victory which resulted in the total destruction of the Spanish ships." The resolution provides for the thanks of congress to Admiral Schley and the officers and men under his command.

Representative Smith (Mich.) introduced a bill amending the war revenue act by striking out the stamp tax on bills of lading, manifests, etc.

Mr. Cooper (Tex.) introduced a bill permitting crude petroleum and other oils to be transported from one port to another of the United States in vessels other than those belonging to the United States.

The caucus of Democratic members of the house called for Jan. 10 to consider party policies has been postponed on account of the illness of Representative Richardson of Tennessee, the Democratic leader.

In the Senate.

Washington, Jan. 8.—The senate did not convene until 2 p. m., an adjournment having been taken until that hour in order that senators might have opportunity to attend the wedding of Senator Foraker's daughter at noon.

Mr. Rawlins (Utah) presented a resolution directing the committee in Indian affairs to investigate the reports that efforts are being made to lease the Utah Indian lands in Utah.

At the conclusion of routine business bills on the calendar were considered and the following were passed: Extending to the support of Sumas, Wash., the privileges of the immediate transportation of dutiable merchandise without appraisement, authorizing the Southern Missouri and Arkansas Railroad company to build a bridge across the Current river in Arkansas.

Over 300 bills and joint resolutions were introduced in the senate, of which the following were the most important: Providing for the erection of a postoffice building in New York, the building to be "substantial and commodious and centrally located," and appropriating $2,500,000 toward this purpose; requiring that contractors carrying the mails of the United States shall be able to read the English language; increasing pension ratings on account of wounds, disease or injuries received while in the line of duty.

Senator Mason introduced several amendments to the proposed Philippine tariff bill. The amendments suggest as a substitute for section 1 of the bill the provisions of the tariff bill enacted by the Philippine commission. It is also provided that Filipino exports or imports from or to the United States shall pay only 50 per cent of the rate on articles coming from or exported to foreign countries. Another provision places American woods and articles manufactured from wood, meats, fish, dried fruits, grains, vegetables and seeds and forage on the free list. Another amendment strikes out the provision in the pending bill requiring the payment of a tonnage tax on vessels coming into the United States from the Philippines.

The president sent the following nominations to the senate: Leslie M. Shaw of Iowa, to be secretary of the treasury; Henry C. Payne of Wisconsin, to be postmaster general, and a number of minor appointments, including the following: John A. Crossland, Missouri, minister resident and consul general to Liberia; Alphonso J. Lescapno, consul at Turpan, Mexico; Conrad M. Jordan, assistant treasurer of the United States at New York; George W. Whitehead, appraiser of merchandise at New York; collector of internal revenue, John E. McCall, for the Fifth district of Tennessee; John T. Wilder, pension agent at Knoxville, Tenn.; Nathan H. Alexander, receiver of public moneys at Montgomery, Ala.; W. J. Graham, surveyor general of California; John C. Dane, of North Carolina, recorder of deeds in the District of Columbia; Elmer J. Miller, surveyor of customs for the port of Columbus, O.

Postmasters Appointed
Washington, Jan. 8.—Among other appointments by the president were the following postmasters for Ohio: Henry D. Weaver, Leontonia; Charles Burroughs, Collingwood.

For West Virginia: Sirs W. Willey, Hinton; George E. Work, Sistersville.

For Kentucky: Benjamin P. Ginn, Augusta; Edwin B. Linney, Danville; Thomas Sammon, Franklin; W. A. Waters, Springfield.

Revolver Shooting Match

New York, Jan. 8.—At the annual meeting of the Metropolitan Shooting club, just held in this city, plans were perfected for what promises to be the most important revolver match ever held in this country. In order to determine who is the best shot with the revolver in the United States it was decided to hold a subscription match open to all comers for the championship. The match will be open to all, will end at 10 p. m., Feb. 3. There are to be 10 shots at 20 yards, targets unlimited and the best four targets of five shots will count.

HORROR IN A TUNNEL

New York Comes to the Front With an Awful Catastrophe.

LONG LIST OF KILLED AND INJURED.

Passenger Train Ran Into and Telescoped the Rear Coach of Train Ahead in a Subway of New York Central Railroad.

New York, Jan. 8.—A disastrous collision occurred on the New York Central railroad in the tunnel at Fifty-sixth street and Park avenue.

The trains in collision were an accommodation on the New York, New Haven and Hartford road from Norwalk, Conn., and a local on the New York and Harlem branch of the New York Central. The last car of the Norwalk accommodation was run into by the Harlem train and was telescoped. After this collision the wreck caught fire. Soon after the collision calls were sent to nearly all of the city hospitals for ambulances and the fire department was called out. Great crowds gathered at the mouth of the tunnel, causing much confusion and making it difficult for a time to obtain definite information as to number killed.

The train which ran into the Norwalk accommodation was known as the White Plains local. It completely wrecked two cars of the Norwalk train, which consisted of five cars, and stopped on its way to the city at Roywayton, Duffen, Glen Brook, Stamford, Bound Brook, Riverside, Coscod, Greenwich, Portchester and New Rochelle, leaving the latter place crowded with passengers, three minutes late. When the train was at Fifty-sixth street it was stopped by a signal. The train had been standing but a few minutes when the collision occurred. The big locomotive of the White Plains local crashed into the rear of the Norwalk train and steam from the engine scalded persons in the cars.

The crash was heard by hundreds of people in the neighborhood and enormous crowds collected at the scene. Clouds of steam arose from the air holes of the tunnel, making the work of rescue difficult.

When the rescuers reached the wreck smoke was pouring out of the entrance to the tunnel at Fifty-sixth street, and great columns of smoke came out of the first ventilator a half block north. Ambulances came in from east and west. Ladders were put down from the street over the iron fence to the track and the firemen, police and surgeons were immediately at work. It was very dark in the tunnel, which was filled with smoke and steam. The work of rescue was therefore difficult. The work of rescue was further impeded by the enormous crowds which in spite of police vigilance swarmed into the tunnel through its many entrances, or crowded about the opening at the surface.

The bodies of the dead and many of the wounded were hoisted through the opening in the roof of the tunnel, placed in the waiting ambulances and rushed to the nearest hospitals.

The tunnel in which the wreck occurred extends from Fifty-fifth street, just above the Grand Central station, and is about two miles long. It is under Park avenue and there is an air hole in each block. Complaints have been made for a long time, however, that its ventilation was insufficient and the New York Central has been considering plans for the use of electrical power in the subway so as to do away with the smoke and steam from locomotives.

The engineer and fireman of the White Plains local and a towerman were arrested. District Attorney Jerome visited the wreck and will personally direct an investigation.

The list of dead follows: A. G. Walton, Theodore Forgardo, 30, H. G. Diamond, William Fisher, 25, Albert M. Perrin, George Potter, 40, William Howard, Mrs. A. F. Hinsdale, 35, F. Washburn, 55, and H. F. George all of New Rochelle; man believed to be C. B. Maas of New Rochelle, employee of the custom house; Oscar E. Myrowitz, an optician in New York city, but a resident of New Rochelle and secretary of the New Rochelle Yacht club; William B. Lees of Baltman & Co., of New York city, and two unidentified. Of the 40 injured 12 are seriously hurt.

J. H. Franklin, manager of the Harlem division of the New York Central railroad, said that "so far as can be learned the wrecked train was stopped by the block signal system, because of something being ahead. I do not know or have not the information as to what was the matter ahead. A flagman jumped off the train, taking a red lantern and a railroad torpedo. He put the torpedo on the track and waved his lantern to signal any train that might come up behind. Whether the engineer of the coming train saw the flagman, saw the lantern, or heard the torpedo if it went off, I don't know.

A Close Shave.

Peru, Ind., Jan. 8.—The Wabash eastbound limited No. 2 narrowly escaped a bad wreck at Lagro, 20 miles east of here. An extra freight westbound was making the siding and had nearly cleared the main track when the limited, running 50 miles an hour, crashed into it, making kindling wood of the rear three cars and throwing the passenger engine into the ditch. One mail car was derailed, but the mail clerks escaped injury. Engineer John Brumbaugh and fireman W. C. Humphrey stuck to their posts and were badly injured, but will recover. No passengers were hurt beyond a severe shaking up.

MINERS ENTOMBED.

Efforts to Rescue Them So Far Have Been Unavailing.

Negaunee, Mich., Jan. 8.—The situation is practically unchanged at the Negaunee mine, where several men are entombed. The rescuers have accomplished nothing, as it was impossible to get to the drift where the men are. The pumps in the old portion of the mine are disabled and the drift is rapidly filling with water.

Officials of the mine say there are at least ten men and possibly 12 underground. The exact number cannot be ascertained until those who escaped report to the office.

General Manager T. F. Cole of the United States Steel corporation arrived in the city by special train and is at the mine assisting in formulating plans to recover the bodies. Men are at work putting in additional pumps with a view to reducing the water in the drift where the men are entombed, and if possible to prevent the mine from flooding.

Used Too Much Dynamite.

Fairport, O., Jan. 8.—Four burglars broke into the grocery store of M. Heitonen & Son here and blew the safe with dynamite. The charge was so heavy that the safe, which contained nothing of value, was blown to fragments, while the building was partially demolished. A night watchman appeared just as the burglars were departing and called upon them to surrender. They answered him with pistol shots. He jumped behind a telegraph pole which was riddled. Several bullets pierced exposed parts of his clothing and one shot made a slight wound on his foot. The marauders then fled.

New York Editor Dead.

New York, Jan. 8.—Henderson B. Owen, 54, a newspaper editor in this city since the sixties, is dead at his home in Jersey City Heights, N. J. Mr. Owen was born in a suburb of Belfast, Ireland. He was graduated at an early age from Queen's college, Belfast, and then attended the college of physicians and surgeons, Dublin, completing the course. Coming to this country soon afterward with the intention of following his profession of medicine, he changed his mind and took up newspaper work. He was connected with the leading news agencies and held editorial positions on the World and Mercury.

Alleged Swindle.

Buffalo, Jan. 8.—What is regarded by the federal authorities as a well developed lottery swindle was brought to light here. Andrew Gifford, a barber, was arrested, charged with having used the mails for fraudulent purposes. It is stated by the federal officers that no drawings were held by the "lottery," purchasers of tickets never having had a chance to win. Postoffice Inspector Cochran found piles of unused lottery tickets, circulars and a large number of envelopes bearing postmarks of places in New York, Canada, Pennsylvania, Ohio and Indiana.

Keefe's Sentence.

Utica, N. Y., Jan. 8.—William Keefe, alias Ironbridge, formerly of Ohio, convicted in December of having impersonated a pension officer, was sentenced in the United States court to a year and five months in Auburn prison. He was brought to court on a cot and did not appear to realize what was going on. He suffered paralysis some months ago, and may not live to serve out his sentence.

Woman Killed.

Bay City, Mich., Jan. 8.—A load of lumber on which a party was riding home from this city capsized near Munger and instantly killed Mrs. August Demars, 28. Her husband and father and sister, Mr. and Miss Christy, were injured. Mrs. Demars leaves two children.

Indiana Democratic Chairman.

Indianapolis, Jan. 8.—At the meeting of the Democratic committee, W. H. O'Brien of Lawrenceburg was elected chairman of the state central committee to succeed Parks M. Martin. O'Brien served five terms as mayor of Lawrenceburg and was known as a gold Democrat. He was a compromise candidate.

WILLIAM TO THE DIET.

He Takes a Gloomy View of Germany's Economic Situation.

RETRENCHMENT MUST BE ENFORCED.

Railroads Failed to Raise the Sufficient Amount of Revenue—Emperor Will Press His Pet Measure the Canal Bill—Foreign News.

Berlin, Jan. 8.—The speech from the throne read by the imperial chancellor, Count Von Buelow, at the opening of the Prussian diet took quite a gloomy view of the economic situation. It pointed out that the revenue from the state railroads in 1901 fell considerably short of the estimate and that the whole results of the financial year were disappointing. In the budget for 1902 the revenue is estimated below that of the current year, but the balance between the revenue and the expenditure is to be maintained without having recourse to a loan. The speech announced plans for legislation providing for the housing of state workmen and of officials earning small salaries. Considerable credits are demanded for the extension of the state railroads and the promotion and the construction of light railroads.

A new canal bill to complete the system of waterways will be submitted.

The concluding portion of Emperor William's speech pointed to the necessity of adopting measures against the agitation in the Polish districts of eastern Prussia, declared that the upholding of the political and economical position of the German element there was necessary for the self-preservation of Prussia and promised that the government would fulfill its duty in cultivating the German national spirit in that region and in combating with firmness all tendencies hostile to the state. In this course the government counted on the support of the German population of east Prussia as well as on the assistance of the whole nation, and regarding any attempt to drive out the German language as an attack on its national honor and dignity.

The reichstag reassembled after the Christmas recess, with a rather slim attendance, and the discussion of the estimates began. The statement of the financial condition of the empire by Baron Von Thielmann, secretary of state for the treasury was even more pessimistic on the subject of the declining trade of Germany than were his earlier utterances.

WITNESSES WANTED.

The Interstate Commerce Commission Postpones Its Hearing.

Chicago, Jan. 8.—Owing to the absence of necessary witnesses the inquiry of the interstate commerce commission into the workings of the "community of interests" plan of the railroads was postponed till Jan. 24, and the commission itself adjourned to meet in Chicago at that time.

President Harris of the Burlington and Darius Miller, said to be slated for the traffic directorship of northwestern lines if their consolidation is not prevented, were present, as were a number of other railroad men who were subpoenaed. President J. J. Hill of the Great Northern, President C. S. Mellen of the Northern Pacific, President E. A. Harriman of the Southern Pacific, and J. C. Stubbs, traffic director of the Southern Pacific-Union Pacific systems, were absent and Chairman Knapp of the commission announced that owing to the fact that the men mentioned were best qualified to give complete and comprehensive testimony concerning the matter in hand, it was thought best to postpone the investigation until these witnesses could be brought before the commission. He declared that if necessary the witnesses would be compelled by court subpoenas to attend. Mr. Hill, he said, sent a special messenger with proper excuses and had expressed his willingness to appear before the commission at any other time. No word was received from Mr. Harriman. Mr. Stubbs, it was announced, has been ill of la grippe two weeks and is still confined to the house.

Helen's Western Tour.

New York, Jan. 8.—Miss Helen Miller Gould will start on a six weeks' pleasure trip through the west and southwest. Miss Gould says that she is going to make a tour of the big cities with eight young women and that St. Louis will be the first stopping place. From St. Louis they will go to Kansas City and thence to Galveston, where they will spend two days looking over the work of remodeling the city that was annihilated by a tidal wave. From Galveston, Miss Gould and her friends will go to Houston, Los Angeles and San Francisco. On the return journey east they will visit the larger cities, including Chicago.

The billion-dollar steel trust has earned $80,000,000 in nine months. A trust that has such absolute power in fixing prices and wages ought to make millions as easy as an ordinary codd-hopper makes a dollar.

It might be well for the President to pattern after his lamented predecessor as to avoiding loquacity, else he may find himself in the predicament under which he seemed to think General Miles labored.

The man who stole half a million dollars from the State of Nebraska has been pardoned after serving five years of his twenty-year sentence. It is thought he had part of his stealings "planted," and if that is true, he can now retire and spend the rest of his days in ease. The people of Nebraska will probably "retire" the Governor who pardoned him.

At the suggestion of the President, Rear Admiral Schley will make a formal appeal to the President from the findings of the Court of Inquiry. The appeal will be made to the President as Commander-in-Chief of the Navy, and despite the contention of the Navy Department that Mr. Roosevelt has no right to review the case.—Courier-Journal.

May be another trap is being laid for the Admiral. He wants to look "a lead" out."

There was nothing very significant in the fact that Mr. Rayner, counsel for Admiral Schley, avoided the Maryland delegation in Congress, who are Republicans, and sought the advice of Mr. Cummings, of New York, a Democrat, regarding the Schley matter. It has been contended by some that this was largely a question of politics and that the majority of Republicans are against Schley.

The Washington correspondents of some of the New York papers were decidedly mixed on the New Year's reception at the White House. The Sun and the World described Ambassador Pauncefoot as at the head of the diplomatic procession and the World printed a picture of the Ambassador getting out of his carriage. The truth of the matter was the Ambassador was never near the reception, but was at home in bed with an attack of gout. There might have been some excuse for an out-of-the-way country paper to get things so glaringly mixed, but none for a metropolitan journal.

A NUMBER OF BILLS

Introduced Monday by Congressman Kehoe to Grant Pensions and Other Relief.

On the reassembling of Congress this week Congressman Kehoe introduced the following bills:

A bill granting a pension to William Craig.

A bill granting an increase of pension to John Meenach.

A bill granting an increase of pension to James R. Chapman.

A bill granting an increase of pension to Louisa January.

A bill for the benefit of Baldwin De Bell.

A bill for the benefit of George W. Taylor's administrator.

A bill for the relief of William G. Gardner.

A bill for the relief of Duncan Scott.

A bill for the relief of Joseph M. Wilburn.

Wm. Sheiton, Arthur Heid, Wm. Burton and Robert Ray Heigley, charged with being drunk and disorderly, were fined $10.50 each by Judge Whitaker Wednesday. Jeff Clayton and Dick Watts were each taxed $6.50 for plain drinks.

For some time thieves have been making raids on coal cars in the C. and O. yards at this point. A detective was sent here, but after working for a week or so failed to catch them and left. Last night Policeman Ort arrested John Riggs, Hendricks Lacy, Cleveland Lacy, Wm. Hickie and Gil Crook on charge of stealing coal. A gun was found on Riggs and he will have to answer that charge also. They will be given a hearing before Judge Whitaker. Riggs is the young man who recently tried to induce his employer's daughter at Fern Leaf to elope with him, but was arrested while awaiting her arrival.

Dress Goods!

UNMATCHABLE VALUES.

The news to-day is of dress goods—a line that has received notice to leave. Intrinsically it is worth double the price asked. Fancy Ziblenes, dark backgrounds with irregular splashes of color and long, silky white hairs in the surface. Forty-five inches wide. Strictly all wool. A dozen different patterns. 25c. a yard. You couldn't ask anything prettier for children's dresses or women's house gowns.

Kid Gloves, 50c.

Economical women never had a better chance to make one dollar count for two. These Kid Gloves are the same quality that usually sell for $1 when the line of colors and sizes is complete. Only four colors left from the big Christmas selling. Tan, brown, gray, black. All sizes, but not all sizes in each color. We are selling all odd pairs and sizes before taking stock. It will pay you to buy several pairs of gloves at the price—50c.

D. HUNT & SON

Remnants

SILK and WOOL.

All the short pieces at great reductions. We find it pays—it keeps our regular stock fresh and clean—it gives our patrons bargains they appreciate.

Our remnants are all of new, desirable goods, the accumulation of our big season's selling.

It's hard to describe them and prices mean little until you see the goods. Don't decide you have no use for remnants—see these first and let the attractive bargains determine the question for you.

READ THIS LETTER!

HERRING-HALL-MARVIN SAFE CO.,
 Hamilton, Ohio, January 3, 1902.

Safety Investment Co., Maysville, Ky.—Gentlemen: We have received your favor of the 2nd and in reply beg leave to advise that the No. 107 safe shipped to you was made specially on your order, it being of special depth and no pains were spared in its construction to make it equal and superior to many that are offered to the public.

The advantage of this safe is seen in the front and rear frames that are of solid weld and not the usual formations that are used by many manufacturers. These frames are further secured by panel bars extending from front to rear and gives the safe a strength that cannot otherwise be obtained. We have sold a large number of these safes for government uses after critical examinations have been made of various makes, and have yet to find where they are not giving complete satisfaction. We trust that this be satisfactory, and are yours truly, HERRING-HALL-MARVIN SAFE CO.

MAYSLEK PARTIES INTERESTED

Some interesting litigation is expected over a suit filed at Vanceburg for the sale of a tract of land, the proceeds to revert to the State treasury. The suit is based on a will made in 1860, and a special gives the history of the property as follows:

In 1833 Elizabeth M. Bedford bought from her brothers their interest in a tract of 452 acres of land in the Ohio river bottom just below Vanceburg, for which she received a bond for a deed. In 1837 Judge G. M. Thomas, who recently resigned his position of Solicitor of Internal Revenue at Washington, brought suit for a deed. In 1860 he wrote the will of Mrs. Elizabeth M. Bedford, and she died soon thereafter. She willed all her land in Lewis County to her only child, Robert Bedford, for life; then it was to be sold for the purpose of educating the poor children of the State. At that time there was no law authorizing the State to accept such donations, but Judge Thomas, being a member of the Legislature, had such a law passed. Robert Bedford died an answer in the suit of his mother, which was still pending, and claimed the 452 acres of land as sole heir of his mother's estate. This was not contested, and in June, 1863, the court directed a deed to be made to him, which was done. He took possession of the land, and held it until his death in 1887. He willed all his property to his wife, Susan Bedford, and she held possession of it until her death in 1890. Since then Dr. T. S. Clark, of Mayslick, and their wives have had possession of the land.

Recently the land was contracted to be sold, and an investigation of the title was made. In 1889 a suit was filed, and for several years the question as to the validity of the will of Elizabeth M. Bedford was litigated. Finally the Court of Appeals adjudged that the land passed to the State, but the 452 acre tract is one that was overlooked by those interested, because of the deed of 1863 being made direct to Robert Bedford, who, it is claimed, only had a life estate in it. Suit has been instituted to get possession of the 452 acre tract by the State and have it sold pursuant to the will. The land is worth $7,000.

NEWSPAPERS AS EDUCATORS.

Annual Report of the Commissioner of Education Classes the Press Among the Most Potent Agencies.

[Fourth Estate.]

The annual report of the Commissioner of Education discusses at considerable length educational extension in the United States and classes newspapers among the potent agencies.

Other agencies recognized, says the Indianapolis Journal, are public schools, the lecture platform, free libraries and museums, the influence of travel and pilgrimage, university extension work, &c., but newspapers are ranked among the best of all. This classification, of course, embraces only clean and good newspapers, though probably it will have to be admitted that bad ones also have an educational influence in wrong direction.

The report characterizes the rise of great newspapers as "one of the most striking educational phenomena of the nineteenth century," and concedes that the press has probably had more to do than any other agency in shaping public opinion and in developing the democratic spirit in politics and culture.

"Newspapers," it says, "accomplish for adults what public schools do for the young. They liberate and inform the mind. They inspire the will and train the human spirit for useful action. In one sense the public prints are the school-books of the nation, educating citizens and voters to a knowledge of their duty."

This is undoubtedly true. Whatever the general imperfections of the American press may be, or however much it may be discredited by individual instances, the net influence of the press as a whole has been and is of incalculable value to the country and the people and to the cause of civilization and progress.

Admitting all that its critics may say, and more, it must still be recognized as among the foremost of popular educators.

ONLY

UNTIL THE EVENING OF THE THIRTEENTH JANUARY WILL OUR TWENTY PER CENT. OFF SALE CONTINUE.

From present appearances a great many of our best dressers treated us badly this fall. From the number of them that are taking advantage of our cut price sale it looks as if they purposely held off until our semi-annual clearing sale was advertised. Well, gentlemen, we don't blame you. We do the same thing when opportunities present themselves.

Whilst we have sold a great many SUITS and OVERCOATS during the past week, we still have complete lines of Stein-Bloch, Adler Bros. and Garson Meyer & Co. Suits and Overcoats to show you. We confess that we prefer to sell them at the sacrifice prices to carrying them over to next season. During the sale we give

TEN PER CENT. DISCOUNT ON HANAN SHOES AND STETSON HATS.

A few of our $1.50 and $2 Manhattan Shirts that we are selling at 98c are yet in stock. By middle of the week they will be gone. Our Neckwear clearing sale is now in full bloom. Don't let the best things be culled before you get your share. 38c. for our 50 and 75c. Neckwear.

Keystone State for Pittsburg and Stanley for Pomeroy to-night. Courier, down.

The White Collar Line is now the owner of the M. P. Wells. She was placed in her old trade, Chilo, this week. The Wells was formerly owned by the Edginton Bros., and then later chartered to the White Collar Line for a year, but the creditors were pressing so hard against her that the boat was sold at auction. Captain Drew Edginton has been placed in command of the boat, with George Quiggan as chief clerk.

Baylor Spratt, engineer, and Thomas Daniels, fireman, of Cincinnati, were released from jail at Dayton, O., this week after taking the oath under the insolvent debtor's law. The men were convicted a month ago of tampering with the gauge on the steamer Sunshine, a White Collar Line packet of the Cincinnati and Memphis trade. Daniels convicted himself in trying to save Spratt, and both were sentenced to thirty days in jail and fined $200 and costs.

THE BEE HIVE

More votes cast yesterday than any day before. There are so many after the Big Doll that everybody has a chance.

Muslin Underwear!

The sale is on. It's growing larger each day. When ladies are buying $15 and $20 worth at a time you must know that it is a great sale of Underwear. You must know that it is made right, that it is in good style, that it is of fine materials, that it is under price—not under price, but about one-half price. Don't miss this sale.

A customer remarked on Monday: If you could buy laces at one-half price, if you could get work done very cheap, you still couldn't buy Underwear as nice and cheap as in your sale. It's the end of Underwear making, she said. It was a true saying by a good woman in the Big Store. Don't miss this sale.

CLOAKS!

We have a few Cloaks left. If your size is here we will make the price fit. DON'T MISS THIS SALE.

BLANKETS.

We have too many; you have too few. We will compromise with a 20 per cent. reduction on all Blankets, from a 59c. cotton Blanket to an all wool extra heavy at $4.25. Don't miss this sale.

COMFORTS.

A good name for the kind we carry. We have comfort enough—have you? A 20 per cent. reduction ought to put us on even terms. We have lots of Comforts left, and the weather man promises plenty cold weather, so don't miss this sale.

ROBES.

It's the $2 Robe. You can use them for covers when lounging around—a great many people are making bath robes of some. They are all very beautiful—light blue, tan and red. Pay us 98c. and you can use them for what you will.

MERZ BROS

WEEK OF PRAYER.

Another Very Large Audience Present Last Night—Service To-night at Baptist Church.

Another very large audience attended the week of prayer service last night. The First Presbyterian Church, the largest in the city, was crowded. There were short, but very interesting addresses by Rev. Dr. Boyet and Rev. Dr. Taylor.

To-night the service will be held in the First Baptist Church, with Dr. Barbour as speaker. All cordially invited. Subject: "Christian Missions."

Prayer: For Christian missions, both home and foreign, that, being filled with the Holy Spirit and sustained by the prayers and gifts of every friend of Christ, they may be the means of a speedy fulfillment of our Savior's command, "Go ye into all the world, and preach the Gospel to the whole creation;" that the complete evangelization of our own country may be hastened; that we may rightly remember our missionary obligations to our newly acquired possessions; that the lives of all missionaries may be very precious in God's sight; and that all missionary effort may be abundantly successful, both at home and abroad. [Isa. 60, 1, 3; Luke 24, 46, 47; Isa. 58, 12; Acts 26, 19, 20.]

Taylor didn't stand on the order of going when he found matters getting too warm for comfort in Kentucky, but hustled off to "Ingiano" in a jiffy. He now stands on his dignity, and is very punctilious, refusing every manner of invitation to return to the dark and bloody ground. Taylor at Washington now has no trouble getting persons to accept invitations to take twenty pounds granulated sugar for $1 and ten pounds of Arbuckle, Lion or Levering coffee for $1 and "Daisy" New Orleans molasses at 50c. gallon.

Ralston health food—Calhoun's.

For the month of December C. and O. earnings decreased $89,938.

Samuel Paul, formerly of Ripley, died the past week at Washington City.

For chapped and rough skin use Ray's Edelweiss Cream. It is guaranteed.

Wheat is spelling snow or rain badly. The present spell has been an exceeding hard one on it.

The health of Mr. John Rouark, of the county, is much improved and he is now able to be employed.

Olivette, the bright little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. Clooney, has been quite sick the last few days.

We are showing the most varied line of sterling silver toilet goods ever shown in this city—all new, popular patterns. As we have carried this stock over holidays, we are offering them at great reductions. MURPHY, the Jeweler.

Mr. J. F. Umstadt and Miss Mayme Case, of Fairview, Fleming County, were married Wednesday at the St. Charles Hotel, R. E. Moss of the Christian Church officiating. The groom is a school teacher. Both the bride and groom have a number of relatives in this city and vicinity.

If you want to purchase the purest and best goods on earth go to G. W. Rogers & Co., 127 Market street, where you will find old Bourbon and rye whiskey, apple and peach brandy, California brandy, malt gin, California port, sherry and Maderia, K. I. sweet Catawba and dry Catawba wines &c. We guarantee all of our goods to be strictly pure.

PHYSICAL TRAINING.

The Y. M. C. A. Has Arranged For Systematic Work—Dr. Brand to Make Examinations.

The Y. M. C. A. has certainly taken a wise step in requiring all who take the gymnasium work or enter into games conducted by the association to take a physical examination. Physical training should be graded, and in order to do this to the best advantage it is necessary to know the individual's needs physically. The Y. M. C. A. stands to-day the strongest organization for physical development.

The local association has felt the need of systematic work in the physical department, and has engaged Dr. L. Brand as the examining physician. Dr. Brand has spent some time in the employment of the Government and is well qualified to take the work. All members of the association can take the examination without charge, and every one should take the examination whether he expects to take the physical work or not. The gymnasium is not a place of recreation alone but a place where men can take exercise suited to their individual needs. Jan. 13, 15, 16, from 3:30 to 5:30 and from 6:30 to 8 p. m. will be the hours for examination. All examinations at the association.

WATSON FLEMING.

A Brother of Mrs. C. W. Darnall Succumbs to an Attack of Pneumonia.

Mrs. C. W. Darnall received the sad news this morning of the death of her brother, Mr. Watson Fleming. He passed away at 10 o'clock last night at his home near Pleasant Valley, Nicholas County, after an illness of several days, of pneumonia.

Mr. Fleming was about forty-three years of age, and is survived by his wife and two children. Besides Mrs. Darnall he leaves many other relatives in this and Fleming counties.

No information as to the funeral arrangements has been received at this writing.

"At Valley Forge" To-night.

The story of the new Colonial drama "At Valley Forge," which comes to the opera house to-night, promises to furnish a notable example of dramatic construction in the nice balance of comedy and dramatic effects. It is a story in stage form dealing with our so-styled Colonial period, and is replete with many sensational surprises and a splendid heart interest, which, together with the comedy rounds out the whole and makes the play and the production one of merit. The costuming is credited with being elaborate and the scenic environment complete in detail. Messrs. Lester & Co. promise a cast of unusual excellence with Mr. Wm. L. Roberts and Miss Olive Martin as the feature.

Armour's pure red blood albumen, (not red paint and sand), a poultry food, 40c. pound, retail.

J. JAS. WOOD & SON, Druggists.

B. F. Ginn was reappointed postmaster at Augusta Wednesday.

Ex-Constable John Mitchell is sick with grip at his home in Washington.

J. C. Cochran, of Ripley, is the first Brown County man to buy an automobile.

The wife of Circuit Clerk Rhodes, of Fleming County, is reported badly deranged mentally.

One Mason County crop of new tobacco is reported sold at 10 cents all round. Several sales are reported at 9 cents.

The number of patients admitted to the Eastern Kentucky Asylum for the insane at Lexington during the past year was 258. There were ninety-eight deaths.

The fact that Sheriff Burton was on his death bed at Hardinsburg punctures the story that he was in the office of the Secretary of State when Mr. Goebel was killed.

The most beautiful line of novelties in jewelry ever shown in Maysville can now be found at Ballenger's for the holiday trade. In making Christmas gifts, select something useful as well as attractive.

Mr. Edward Damon, of Knoxville, is in town repairing some of the machinery at the "Old Gold" mills. He is a son of Prof. Damon, who is remembered as a famous clarinet player of this section in years gone by.

Attention is called to the advertisement of W. L. Schatzman in another column. He has opened a grocery on Second, opposite the opera house. His stock is new and fresh and his prices will be found reasonable.

W. Wirt Leggett, of Ripley, late of the Sixth Infantry, U. S. army, now stationed in the Philippine Islands, has been honorably discharged from the service to accept the appointment lately tendered him as Supervisor of the Province of Abra in the Island of Luzon, under Civil government.

A bill of much interest to ex-Confederate soldiers was favorably acted upon by the House Committee on War Claims. It provides for paying former Confederate soldiers for horses, bridles, saddles and side arms taken from them in violation of the terms of surrender made by Gens. Lee and Johnson with Gens. Grant and Sherman.

In view of the unfavorable criticism of the English toward Rudyard Kipling's latest effort it may not be without interest to learn that a lady, well-known here, on a recent visit to America, said she was surprised at the estimation put upon Mr. Kipling and his writings here, as he was only laughing stock of the educated people among whom he was raised.

James W. Current, aged twenty-three, recently wedded Mrs. Mattie Boyd, postmaster at Centerville, Bourbon County, who is fifty-three years old. Current is a rural mail carrier, six feet six inches tall, while his wife's head about reaches her husband's waist. As the regulations prohibit husband and wife holding positions in the same service, either Current or his wife will have to resign.

Tuesday there were six former Lieutenant Governors in Frankfort—Judge Jas. E. Cantrill, M. C. Alford, of Lexington; W. J. Worthington, of Greenup; John Marshall, of Louisville; Gov. Beckman, who was Lieutenant Governor for a short period during Gov. Goebel's last illness, and Lillard H. Carter, of Lawrenceburg, who as President pro tempore of the last Senate was acting Lieutenant Governor.

CINCINNATI TO HUNTINGTON.

Senator Camden Predicts That an Electric Line Will Be Completed Between These Cities Ere Long.

The Parkersburg State Journal says: "Negotiations are now pending for the purchase of the street railway system of Portsmouth by the Camden Inter-State Railway Company of Huntington, and there is little doubt that the deal will be consummated within the next few days. The property is now owned by Levi D. York, of Portsmouth.

"Senator J. N. Camden was seen by a State Journal man and asked regarding the matter. He stated that his company had an option on the Portsmouth system and that his Huntington representative and Sprigg D. Camden were in Portsmouth inspecting the property.

"The option does not expire for two weeks, but Senator Camden intimated that if his representatives made a favorable report, the deal would be closed at once, the amount involved being about $300,000. The system is an extensive one and will form an important link in the proposed line from Huntington to Cincinnati.

"I have no doubt," said Senator Camden, "that the line will be completed from Cincinnati as far as Huntington at least, within a short time, and that it will be operated under one management. The electric system now extends along the Ohio for twenty-five miles from Cincinnati and the system will likely be completed to Portsmouth within the next few months."

"The line will then be extended from Portsmouth to Hanging Rock, to which point the Camden system is now in operation from Huntington."

Congressman Kehoe, of the Committee on War Claims, has been appointed by the Chairman of his committee a sub-committee to consider the bill recently introduced by Representative Smith providing for the payment of the Kentucky Civil war claim.

The new tobacco factory presents a busy scene now. About sixty hands are employed, and the factory is running until 9 o'clock at night.

PITHY POINTS.

The attack on General Miles through the brutal Egan was part and parcel of the same brutality that sought to disgrace Admiral Schley before the country.

If Sampson can find it in his heart to feel elated at the part he bore in the Santiago fight, there's certainly no room for any else to grumble.

The man who imagines that whiskey is necessary to put him to sleep, had better have a care lest he finds it just as indispensable to induce wakefulness. "At the last it blithely like a serpent and stings like an adder."

The "tug of war" is really the only kind of war that counts for anything; and this was the kind at which Admiral Schley won for his country victory, and for himself glory, honor and renown; to say nothing of the paltry consideration of prize money.

The healthy old man wears his gray hairs like a silver crown. What if he be three-score and ten if there is still fire in his eye, firmness in his step, command in his voice and wisdom in his counsel? He commands love and reverence. Yet how few wear the mantle of age with dignity. Dim eyed, querulous of speech, halting in step, childish in mind, they "lag superfluously on the stage," dragging out the fag end of life in a simple existence. The secret of a healthy old age is a healthy middle age. The man who takes care of his stomach, who keeps his body properly nourished, will find that the body does not fall him in old age. The great value of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery lies in the preservation of the working power of the stomach and other organs of digestion and nutrition. From this center is distributed the nourishment of the whole body, the salt for the blood, the lime for the bones, phosphate for the brain and nerves. A sound stomach means a sound man. A man who keeps his stomach sound by the use of "Golden Medical Discovery" will wear the crown of gray hairs as befits a monarch, with dignity and ease.

MUST BELIEVE IT.

When Well Known Maysville People Tell it So Plainly.

When public endorsement is made by a representative citizen of Maysville the proof is positive. You must believe it. Read this testimony. Every backache sufferer, every man, woman or child with any kidney trouble will find profit in the reading.

Mr. W. H. Campbell, of 490 West Third street, says: "Doan's Kidney Pills sold at J. Jas. Wood & Son's drug store, corner of West Second and Market streets, proved to be a wonderful effective remedy for relieving and curing kidney troubles. It is a great boon to people on the down grade of life to know of a remedy which has such soothing and healing powers. It should be known to every person of advanced age."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50c. a box. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the U. S. Remember the name—DOAN'S—and take no other.

Tobacco Sales.

[Paris Kentuckian.]

Horace Miller sold to Edward Bair, of Cynthiana, 35,000 pounds of tobacco, at $8.25. Messrs. Neal and Himes raised the weed.

Jas. Carpenter, near Millersburg, sold his crop of 30,000 pounds, to Mr. French, of Carlisle, the Continental buyer, at 10 cents.

B. F. Hopkins, at Little Rock, sold to Dave Pence, of Carlisle, 4,475 pounds, at $5.75 straight.

Oliver Harrison, of Cane Ridge, sold his crop of tobacco, about 6,000 pounds, to W. L. Davis, at $7.

Joe S. Godman sold to Edward Bair, of Cynthiana, his crop of 30,000 pounds at $7.50.

In Harrison, A. Gossett sold to Edward Bair, 17,000 pounds, for $1,130.

A Bowling Record.

[Lexington Democrat.]

A four men team made a sensational record on the Manhattan alleys Saturday night. The team was composed of the following, who made the records opposite their names: C. C. Kirkpatrick 216, R. W. Kennedy 208, E. E. Sallee 220 and G. A. Sudduth 213. This makes an average of 214, a record that has not been equalled by any four men team in this city before, nor perhaps in the State.

THE COUNTRY PAPER.

[Nathaniel S. Olds, in Rochester Post.]
Amid the pile of papers
That swamp my desk each day
And drive me weak with clipping
And filing stuff away,
Comes once a week—on Thursday—
The quaint old four page sheet
That's printed up in Pelham,
A drowsy county seat.

You see, 'twas up in Pelham
That first I saw the light,
And—well, my heart grows softer
And I feel my eyes shine bright;
Right reverent my touch is,
It spreads the columns wide,
The local's what I'm seeking—
The patented inside.

Ah, here it is: "The County."
And "Jottings," "Local News"—
You learn who's traded horses
And who have rented pews;
It tells about the schoolhouse
Where we used to sit and dream,
A-watching dust specks dancing
In the sunlight's shifty beam.

The sturdy names of boyhood
Come tumbling through our thought,
Of Tom and Brick and Patsey—
How we loved and how we fought!
The friends when years grew graver,
Called now beyond our ken,
In the type-lines of the paper
They live and speak again.

Oh, tollers in life's workshops,
Are not those dream-mists sweet,
Which memory casts about us
When past and present meet?
And so, I love that paper
From the village in the hills
For the old life that it wakens,
For the weariness it stills.
